

TURKISH HAZELNUT WEEKLY SHIPMENT REPORT

Weekly

Seasonal

Export is still going low, 53 % down in tonnage, 34 % down in USDerms. Prices haven't been rising since 2 days, and both sellers and buyers are fewer. We had lots of newsfeed regarding the biggest buyer's position in the market. They are still out and waiting. Current levels are 4 % over the price in their mind, but they are also looking more for the volumes at those levels.
